- Comment 2: The comparisons between R.I. and J.I.

“As Eichengreen and Kawai (2014) indicated, RMB internationalization was supported by speculative motives rather than the convenience of RMB for trade invoicing and settlement.”

- Comment 3: Limit use of yen

——Bargaining power

The same case for China?

More complicated?

——Bargaining power

The same case for China?

More complicated?

Firm-level and especially intra-firm data is very meaningful.

- Comment 4: more studies on digging the data
