		Interviewer: Read the following words slowly and clearly, pausing after each word. As a rule, try to read the words only once, but if the respondent did not hear, you may repeat a word once. Wait up to a minute for respondent to answer. The order of the response is not important. Indicate below whether respondent was able to answer. If respondent takes more than one minute to answer, say "Thank you," and continue to the next question. If respondent stops in the middle of his or her answer, place a check next to the words respondent was able to remember and also next to "Could not answer after trying for one minute or more."
